provided pursuant to Art. 13 of EU Regulation 679/2016

Pursuant to Article 13 of EU Regulation 679/2016 (GDPR) Copernit S.p.a. (hereinafter referred to as Copernit) supplies you with some information related to the processing of your personal data during the visit to the site <http://www.copernit.it>

Collection and processing of personal data

Online browsing data

During normal operation, the IT systems and software procedures that operate this portal collect some personal data, the transmission of which is implicit in the use of internet communication protocols. This information is not collected with the intent of associating it with identified users but, by its very nature, could lead to the identification of users through processing and association with data held by third parties. This data category includes the IP addresses, or domain names, of the computers used by users to connect to the website, the URI (Uniform Resource Identifier) addresses of the requested resources, the time of the request, the method used to submit the request to the server, the size of the file obtained in response, the numerical code indicating the server response status (successful, error etc.), and other parameters pertaining to the user's operating system and IT environment. This data is used solely to compile statistics on the use of the website and to verify its correct operation. The data might be used to ascertain responsibility in the event of hypothetical computer crimes detrimental to the site.

Data provided voluntarily

In the sections "Contacts" - "User Registration" - "Newsletter", you will be asked to provide personal information. In that case you will be provided with the privacy policy pursuant to art. 13 of GDPR concerning the processing of personal data in relation to the purpose pursued.
